MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, MAY 5, 1916.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

BIG PARADE ON OPENING DAY.

Arrangements are being made by the baseball officials for a big parade here on the opening day of the baseball season. The River City Band of Portsmouth, and the Maysville Band will discourse sweet music for the occasion. The line of march and other particulars have not yet been completed.

A revival will begin at the Apostolic Holiness church May 5. Good music and singing. Everybody welcome.

MASON COUNTY COURT.

The following business was transacted Thursday in the Mason County Court:

Miss Agnes Fox, named in the last will of Patrick Fox, deceased, as executrix, appeared in court and qualified as such without surety as was requested in the will.

Charles L. Daly was appointed guardian to Minnie Lee Wilson, a minor under 14 years of age, and he qualified as such with W. Hall Strode as surety on bond.

LETTER OF PRAISE

For Rev. Yenell Is Received By Rev. A. F. Stahl From Pastor of Winchester Church.

Rev. A. F. Stahl, pastor of the Christian church, is in receipt of the following letter from Rev. J. H. McNeil, pastor of the Winchester Christian church, telling of the successful work of Dr. Herbert Yenell in the revival which recently closed there:

Herbert Yenell and Earle Yearsley, his singer, have just closed here one of the most satisfactory meetings in which I have ever had the pleasure of participating. Through five Sundays they have gripped this community with increasing power. The audiences have been continuously large.

On Sundays many have been turned away. There were eighty-six additions, mostly adults. We consider this a good in-gathering, as we keep our great Bible school closely gleamed.

Herbert Yenell is distinctly an evangelist. No clap-trap, no sensationalism mars his fine message. His is the sanest sort of persuasive, powerful preaching, the highest type of modern evangelism. I have heard no more faithful exponent of the doctrines of primitive Christianity. Kindly, courteous Christian, he preaches "the truth in love." His sincerity and devotion to duty inspire all. His earnestness and enthusiasm profoundly impresses all. His message is always searching and compelling. His sermons and lectures abound in allusions to nature, science, art, history and literature. His style is dramatic but always sincere and persuasive. His scholarly tastes give a literary finish to his addresses that charms his cultivated hearers and yet they are so lucid and sparkling as to hold the attention of school children. He was very popular with the young people of the city and they were present in large numbers at every service.

He delivered eight addresses to the schools and college, and was always received with the greatest enthusiasm.

He delivered five of his great chautauqua lectures to crowded houses. His equipment for this work is unexcelled.

These lectures are not something apart from the meeting but powerful illustrations of many of the great truths he is constantly emphasizing. In this field he has absolutely no rival.

Earle Yearsley captured our city from the start. As a soloist I have not heard his superior. His singing and leadership are of the highest order.

He has a voice of singular sweetness and remarkable range. He is surely a master of his field.

To my preaching brethren and to our churches desiring high-class evangelism, I毫不犹豫地 without reservation commend Herbert Yenell and Earle Yearsley.

LINE-UPS

White high boots and low shoes in many varieties at Barkley's Shoe Store.

CAUGHT YOUNG FOXES.

Mr. Harry Catron of Aberdeen, caught a batch of six young foxes Thursday afternoon in the hills near Aberdeen. He brought them to Maysville Friday morning and offered them for sale to local sports who will use them for a chase when they grow a little.

RECOMMENDATION FOR MISS SUE SETTLE.

(Owenton News-Herald.) Miss Sue Settle received a letter Friday from Mr. J. W. Caplinger, chairman of the board of education of the city of Maysville, notifying her of her election by the board as a teacher in the Maysville High School. Miss Settle is the daughter of Col. James H. Settle, and a niece of the late Congressman Evan E. Settle, and is now one of the teachers in the Owenton High School. There is no girl in Owenton with more friends than Miss Settle, and her popularity as a teacher here is evidence of this fact. She is a young lady of rare accomplishments, attractive, refined and Owenton's loss will be Maysville's gain. When interviewed Miss Settle had not determined whether she would accept the Maysville position or hold the one here, but her friends hope she will decide to remain at home. As a teacher Miss Settle would be a credit to any schoolroom of any city school in the state.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY TONIGHT.

Instead of "all roads leading to Rome," tonight they will center to the High School, where will take place the school event of the season—graduating class of thirty-eight members will offer for a splendid dramatization of Elliot's "Silas Marner."

"Come out and watch the work of the largest class ever sent out from our High School. Admission 25 cents and 35 cents. Reserved seats at Williams' Drugstore.

MAYSVILLE CHAPTER ENTER- TAINS GRAND HIGH PRIEST.

Last night Royal Arch Masons from Mason, Bracken and Fleming counties were present at the annual inspection of Maysville Chapter No. 9, which was conducted by Grand High Priest John W. Juett. A large number of visiting brethren were present and the R. A. M. degree was conferred on a class of three.

John T. Smith of the Margaret poolroom, caught an eight-pound bass in the North Fork Thursday.

MISS MARGARET SMITH

Was Successful Contestant In Ledger Advertising Contest and Wins the Prize of $20 In Gold.

Miss Margaret Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of West Fourth street, is the winner of the $20 in gold offered by The Public Ledger advertising contest, which closed Monday night.

Miss Smith had 95 per cent of her answers correct, which showed that she had made a careful study of the advertisements. Her closest competitor had a percentage of 90 and a number of others were also close contenders. The merchants are satisfied with the results obtained through the contest, feeling that people have been led to make a more careful perusal of the advertisements than ever before. People are becoming more and more aware of the fact that the successful merchants are the ones who advertise consistently.

The prize was announced and the money paid to Miss Smith at the close of the first show at the Washington Theater.

To those who were in the contest and were not successful we would say that your time has been well spent in reading what the Maysville merchants offered and you are therefore repaid.

The Ledger extends thanks to the merchants and business houses that were in the contest, to those who were striving for the money and to the Washington Theater for its interest in the matter of announcing the prize winner and paying the money to Miss Smith.

We wish to congratulate Miss Smith upon her efforts which made her successful over a large number of other contestants.

PICTURE CANCELLED

"The Birth of a Nation" Will Not Show Here On May 10 and 11, May Come Later

Manager Thomas M. Russell of the Washington Opera House received word Thursday that "The Birth of a Nation," which was scheduled to show here on May 10 and 11, would not be here. He immediately wired for an explanation and was told that the company was unable to fulfill its contract, but would probably be shown here during the week of June 12.

Mr. Russell also wired President William Gableman of the Portsmith baseball club, that the picture had been cancelled. Mr. Gableman wired back that the people of Portsmith who had expected to see the picture here on the day of the opening ball game were very much disappointed and that a number of them would not come. He said that the special to Maysville was sure to come, however, with about 125 people. If the picture had not been cancelled the number would have double that.

A large number of people from Cincinnati, Flemingsburg, Ewing, Mt. Olivet, West Union, O., Manchester, O., Aberdeen and other surrounding towns and cities had made arrangements to see the picture here and will be badly disappointed when they hear of its cancellation.

Manager Russell will try to have the picture here some time during the week of June 12.

"WATCHFUL WAITING'S" COLLAPSE.

That "watchful waiting" only leads to war is the sad conclusion to which both Democrats and Republicans have been forced by the recent developments in the relations of the United States with both Germany and Mexico. The spectacle of President Wilson's persistent blundering and abject failures is one which must bring sorrow to every patriotic American. Instead of keeping the country out of war he has done everything possible to bring on war, and that fact is now borne home to his partisan colleagues as clearly as in the past it has been realized by the Republicans, and none can gainsay it because the testimony has come from his own lips, in his message to Congress on the negotiations with Germany, and in the statement of his Secretary of State, Mr. Lansing, who bears evidence to the disastrous blundering in the Mexican situation. On Tuesday, Secretary Lansing served notice on the cabinet of his conviction that humiliatiing as such a course must be, the United States must withdraw its troops from Mexican soil, whether Villa has been captured or not. The view was expressed at the cabinet meeting that it would be humiliatiing in the extreme to withdraw from Mexico without accomplishing the purpose for which the punitive expedition was undertaken, but Mr. Lansing stated that Carranza and his followers demanded such withdrawal, that they refused to respect the American flag or to accept the sincerity of purpose with which the expedition was undertaken and that general war with Mexico would inevitably follow if the troops were not immediately withdrawn.

Several weeks ago a number of Republican newspapers challenged any Democrat to give a list of public questions which the American people deem of importance and upon which President Wilson has not changed his mind since he was elected. So far as observed no one has undertaken to make up such a list. There is still plenty of time and we should be delighted to read a list prepared by some of President Wilson's admirers.

PULPITO PASS PROVES PRESENT PRESSURE POINT.

Douglas, Ariz., May 4.—An attempt by a body of de facto Mexican cavalry, the advance guard of General Arnufulo Gomez's force, to enter Chihuahua through Pulpito Pass, was blocked yesterday by American troops according to a reliable report received here from American sources.

The Mexicans, according to the report, were under command of Colonel Jesus Maria Aguirre, and had penetrated eighteen miles into the pass before their movement was discovered by a United States military aeroplane which reported their presence to the American commander.

The American troops are said to have been drawn up in strategic formation to hold the pass and Colonel Aguirre did not attempt to press forward, but went into camp and dispatched messengers to the rear, presumably to communicate with General Gomez.

Colonel Aguirre's advance into Chihuahua is believed here to have been the forerunner of a general movement.

Americans arriving here from the south reported that forces of General Gomez, which have been scattered in the towns of the Basipse river valley, have received orders to concentrate between Colonia Morelos and Colonia Oaxaca and are marching northward toward that point. This would place the entire command on the road to Pulpito Pass, through which they would enter Chihuahua in the Casas Grandes district. Gomez is reliably reported to have 3,500 men, including cavalry and four cannon.

The garrison at Agua Prieta is not more than 300 strong.

Wild rumors are current on both sides of the border and arrivals said that a report had reached the de facto government soldiers at Fronteras that 5,000 American soldiers were invading Sonora and it was with difficulty that their commanders restrained the Mexicans from marching northward to meet the supposed invaders.

HONOR UNCLE JOE.

Washington, May 4.—House leaders are arranging a special demonstration in honor of former Speaker Cannon, now an untitled member, to be held next Saturday. Mr. Cannon will be 80 years old Sunday. Speaker Clark, Majority Leader Kitchin and other Democrats and Republicans are expected to make speeches.

Ten strikers at Pittsburg reported killed by deputies and militia.

5,000 MEN ON N. Y. CENTRAL ON VERGE OF STRIKE.

New York, May 4.—The demands of telegraphers and signal men on the lines of the New York Central and Nickelplate railroads for increased wages and better hours will not be granted yesterday by American troops according to a reliable report received here from American sources.

Dave McRoberts and wife, who have been separated for some time, have again become reconciled.

Several of our young men and boys are "digging" out on account of the coming session of the grand jury.

Hon. Bert Grigsby of Tollesboro, was here recently fox hunting with Dad McRoberts. They report some fine chases.

Sam R. McRoberts, chairman of this educational division and a hustling farmer and stock raiser of this place, will purchase a new Ford automobile this spring.

Coroner Charles H. Compton was at Wallingford recently taking more affidavits in the case of the young child that was exhumed there recently after having been buried under peculiar circumstances. Several witnesses will be examined by the coming session of the grand jury and a lot of indictments are expected, as beyond any doubt a serious crime has been committed.

We have had quite a lot of drunkenness in this community here of late, and it is not very pleasant to witness young men and young women staggering around with red eyes and dirty clothes, which we are sorry to say is true. But we have just witnessed the spectacle of two young boys, aged 16 and 10 years, pass through our village, both intoxicated and the youngest boy being so drunk that he had to be held in the wagon, not knowing where he was or being able to walk or talk, but lying at full length on the bottom of the wagon bed. These boys had a one-gallon jug of whisky in their wagon and were en route home from Flemingsburg, their home being near Ryan, three miles above this place.

DOVER BOY HERO

Has Thrilling Experience In Rescuing Drowning Man, Suddenly Gone Insane, From Waters of Ohio River.

(Dover News.)

To struggle desperately in the Ohio river, many yards from shore, in a small boat with a powerful man suddenly become insane, was the horrifying experience of Frank Mitchell, a resident of this place, Saturday morning.

Frank crossed the river early Saturday morning with the intention of purchasing a small rowboat from Mr. James Graybill of Levanna. Upon landing on the Ohio shore he observed a man walking up the grade whom he mistook for Mr. Graybill. When Frank called to the man and found that he was mistaken in his identity he, nevertheless, engaged him in conversation. The man told Frank that his name was Edward Thompson, that his home was in Levanna, and that he also had a boat for sale. This boat was a short distance down the river, so the two entered Frank's boat in which to make the trip to the spot where Mr. Thompson's boat was anchored, Frank taking the oars and Mr. Thompson occupying the seat in the stern of the boat.

They had been rowing several minutes and were about thirty yards from shore, engaged in pleasant conversation. Mr. Thompson conversed intelligently and by his demeanor gave no hint of the approaching attack of madness which was about to seize him. Suddenly he arose, and standing upon the seat which he had just occupied, and poised himself momentarily, dived headlong into the water. Frank was bewildered at the man's strange action but lost no time in preparing for his rescue. Luckily, in making the dive, Mr. Thompson had swung the boat around so that the bow now pointed up-stream. Mr. Thompson had arisen to the surface and Frank quickly reached his side. Just as he was about to seize the unfortunate man he dived beneath the surface for the second time. When he arose again to the surface Frank seized him, and then commenced a furious struggle. Mr. Thompson bent upon Frank and determined to save him, if possible.

At an opportune moment, when Mr. Thompson's back was toward the boat, Frank seized him by both shoulders and pressing his right knee firmly between, prevented him further struggles. Then with his left foot holding to a runner along the bottom of the boat he succeeded in slowly dragging him aboard. Mr. Thompson, apparently, was somewhat weakened by his struggles in the water and Frank was able to hold him on the bottom of the boat while he paddled frantically for shore. Here in the mud the struggle was renewed with increasing violence on the part of Mr. Thompson, who kept yelling "They're after me," while Frank hung gamely on, calling all the while for assistance. Finally, Mr. Morris Taylor, living nearby, answered the call and the now thoroughly enraged madman was proving more than a match for both him and Frank when Mrs. Taylor, who, also, had heard the calls, arrived on the scene with a rope. Soon a number of other men were attracted to the scene, eight of whom took a hand in binding Mr. Thompson and removing him to his home. After his arrival there he became quiet, and we understand that he has now recovered from the attack.

Frank'sfeat in recovering Mr. Thompson, who weighs 180 pounds, from the water and saving his life, required remarkable skill and bravery, a rare presence of mind and, literally, superhuman strength, for the feat would not have been possible without the stimulus afforded by the necessity of saving a life. He displays an admirable modesty in recounting the details of the harrowing experience and is being congratulated on all sides for his pluck and courage and his unselfish disregard of his own safety. Had the boat capsized during the struggle it is not at all improbable that a double tragedy would have resulted and that Frank Mitchell would have found a watery grave in a maniac's death grip.

Frank's courage has never been questioned, but he is none the less entitled to credit for his conduct in this instance. The incident is worthy of the attention of the Carnegie Hero Commission and the News for one, would be gratified to have the commission investigate the matter.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Many Aches and Ills of Maysville People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so may weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys and generally when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills frequently come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards dropsy, gravel or fatal Bright's disease. When the kidneys fail there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Maysville testimony is proof of their effectiveness.

Mrs. S. Neal, 497 W. Second St., Maysville, says: "One of my family has a great deal of trouble from a lame back and weak kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills made the patient better." Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Neal recommends. Foster-Millburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

A NIGHT OUT AT GEM TODAY..

Charles T. Dazey, whose stage success "Old Kentucky," has had more performances than any other legitimate production, is the author of "A Night Out," the latest Vitagraph Blue Ribbon comedy, released through the V. L. S. E. He wrote in collaboration with May Robson, the favorite actress of Broadway, who is featured in the film.

"A Night Out" is well worth the efforts of two such masters in stage craft and the leading role is capably portrayed by Miss Robson. The film is one of the best comedies ever released by the Vitagraph trade-mark. It will be on the program at the Gem today.

CONCLUDE CASE AGAINST SPIES.

New York, May 4.—The government concluded its case here yesterday against Lieutenant Robert Fay, Paul Rurex and Walter Scholz, on trial in the United States District Court on the charge of conspiring to destroy munitions ships of the entente allies.

The defense will open today after formal motions are heard by the court for the dismissal of the case on various grounds.

Among the chief witnesses for the government were William J. Flynn, chief of the United States secret service, and Captain Thomas J. Tunney, head of the "bomb" squad of the New York police, who arrested Fay and others. They testified to the authenticity of alleged confessions of the men on trial.

Against the protest of the defense the court accepted as evidence a miniature ship with a working model of Fay's rudder-bomb attached.

THOSE CRUEL PARENTS!

Youngstown, O., May 4.—A committee which was selected at a mass meeting of parents has protested to the Board of Education against teaching of classic dances in South High School.

Opposition to the dancing came to a head two weeks ago following an exhibition given by South High girls. Superintendent of Schools Chaney says dancing is a part of the girls' physical training and he will fight efforts to do away with the dances.

The trial of Dr. Arthur Waite on the charge of poisoning his rich father-in-law, John E. Peck of Grand Rapids, Mich., was set for May 22.

IRISH REBELS EXECUTED FOR PART IN REVOLT.

London, May 4.—Found guilty by a court martial, four leaders of the revolt in Ireland, including Patrick H. Pearse, whose title was "provisional president," and James Connolly, in command of the rebel troops, Thomas J. Clark and Thomas MacDonough were executed yesterday by a firing squad. They were among the seven signers of the insurgent proclamation issued at Dublin at the outbreak of the rebellion. Three others were sentenced to three years' imprisonment.

Another aftermath of the revolt was the resignation of Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, who has been severely criticized in the British press for his handling of the Irish situation previous to the outbreak.

The rounding up of persons charged with being implicated in the rebellion is being vigorously continued and, according to a Dublin dispatch, several prisoners have been taken by the military.

Executions of Irish Leaders Brings Protest.

New York, May 4.—Execution of the leaders of the Dublin revolt was characterized as "savage repression" in a cable message sent to John Redmond, nationalist leader in the House of Commons, by prominent supporters of the Irish parliamentary party here. The telegraph, signed by Captain Stephen McFarland, president of the New York Municipal Council of the United Irish League, was as follows:

"Irish in America, contrasting execution of Dublin leaders with treatment in Ulster and South Africa, are revolted by this sign of perversity to savage repression."

MADE BOMBS TO SINK SHIPS, NOT TO TAKE LIFE.

New York, May 4.—Lieutenant Robert Fay yesterday took the witness stand in his own defense in the trial of himself, Walter Scholz and Paul Daecher, charged with conspiring to blow up sea ships carrying munitions to the allies. Fay testified that he lived in the United States from 1902 to 1907, when he went back to Germany and enlisted in the army. The witness said he came to the United States a second time in 1915, arriving on April 3.

Fay admitted that he had experimented in the manufacture of bombs to be attached to the rudders of ammunition ships, but declared that any damage done would be outside of New York harbor.

"It was only the object to disable ships and not to take life," said Fay.

Charging that they planned to carry out a military movement against Canada in violation of the neutrality law, by plotting to blow up the Welland canal federal grand jury yesterday found superseding indictments against Franz von Papen, Captain Hans Taucher, Wolf von Igel, Alfred A. Fritzen and Constantine Covani.

The indictments were handed down for fear that the former indictments against the men might be dismissed on some technicality.

The charge is plotting to blow up the Welland canal.

HUSBAND OBJECTS TO OPERATION

Wife Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Des Moines, Iowa.—"Four years ago I was very sick and my life was nearly spent. The doctors stated that I would never get well without an operation and that without it I would not live one year. My husband objected to any operation and got me some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and commenced to get better and am now well, am stout and able to do my own housework. I can recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who is sick and run down as a wonderful strength and health restorer. My husband says I would have been in my grave ere this if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. BLANCHE JEFFERSON, 703 Lyon St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Before submitting to a surgical operation it is wise to try to build up the female system and cure its derangements with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it has saved many women from surgical operations.

Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice—it will be confidential.

AGREE ON GUARD CLAUSE.

Washington, May 4.—Reorganization of the national guard as proposed by the house, whereby there would be created a militia reserve of approximately 400,000 men, was tentatively agreed upon yesterday by the conferees on the army bill. The Senate's provisions for the national guard were along the same line as those in the House bill, but would provide for only 250,000 men.

Washington, May 4.—Congress will probably not recess for the national conventions. Majority Leader Kitchin of the House said yesterday that some measure not requiring the presence of all the members probably will be considered during the convention weeks so that those who desire to get away may do so. Senate and House may recess for three days at a time.

not alone for its delicious, nut-like flavor, but more for its wonderful nerve and brain making, bone and muscle building qualities.

Grape-Nuts supplies certain essential elements, abundantly stored in the field grains, but which are lacking in many foods. Especially is this true of foods made from white flour, because in making flour white the larger part of the energizing mineral elements are thrown out in the milling process.

Made of whole wheat and malted barley, Grape-Nuts supplies all the rich nourishment of the grains, is long baked and rendered quickly digestible, and yields a big return of brain, nerve and muscle energy.

Wherever you go you'll find Grape-Nuts.

GERMAN ANSWER

To American Note On Submarine Warfare Delivered To Ambassador Gerard.

Harry Few, aged 18 years, arrived Thursday from his home in New Richmond, O., for a tryout with the local ball club. Few has been attending school and only graduated Wednesday. Manager Jones signed him upon the recommendation of Mr. Charles Triebel, owner of the Pastime theater, who has had considerable experience with amateur clubs and players. Sunday, April 23, he pitched against the Welshback team of Cincinnati and allowed only two hits and no runs. In playing against the Wiedemanns team of Newport last Sunday afternoon he struck out fifteen of his opponents and allowed seven hits. He was defeated in this game 6 to 1 because his team made seven errors.

After a two days' layoff on account of wet grounds, Manager Jones and the boys were able to go out Thursday afternoon and perform a few mudballs. Beginning today the boys will begin practicing twice a day.

Second Baseman Slinker, who is playing his first ball with an organized club, is putting up a good article of ball playing, and has probably cinched a regular job.

Nineteen players were out for practice Thursday afternoon. The pruning knife will be applied about next Monday, which will reduce the squad to about fifteen.

Kelly still plays a nice game at the shortfield and was picking them up every place Thursday, notwithstanding the fact that the ground was in a very bad shape.
